Dear RCC Family and Friends,

Jeremiah 23:18 says, "But which of them has stood in the council of the LORD to see or to hear his word? Who has listened and heard his word?"

In recent days, we've been discussing the importance of hearing from God for ourselves. There is simply NO replacing a word directly spoken into your spirit from the Holy Spirit. God's word brings life, health, direction, and peace to all who hear his still, small voice. Have you heard the Shepherd's voice speak to your heart?

With all the turbulence happening in our world at this moment, we must respond to the leading of the Holy Spirit without delay. That is why we are turning our attention toward heaven once again on Wednesday nights.

As we prepare for the timely arrival of our new Youth Pastor, Hoi Siamomua, this June, the adults will be meeting in the Worship Center for a new service we are calling IGNITE. Each Wednesday night at 7:00 throughout the summer, we will be worshipping the Lord, sharing a brief word of encouragement from God's word, then praying fervently for our fellowship, the needs of our city (both practical and spiritual), as well as our nation and its leaders. Join us this Wednesday night for IGNITE.

Did you miss last week's message or just want to listen again? By midweek, we upload the latest messages from both the First Word (8:30) and Overflow (10:00) services online at www.rccchurch.org/messages. Listen online or download the messages to your computer, iPod or other mp3 device.

Pastor Jim Kelly and the RCC Connection Team would like to invite you to join them for a three-week series of classes designed to help you find your connection within the RCC family. Participation in two of the three classes is required for becoming a member of RCC.
